

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the post of <insert> at the National College Creative Industries.

The expectation for the National College is to be a leading provider of world class skills education in the creative industries sector and to achieve Ofsted 'Outstanding' in three years.

The education sector is looking to the National College as a flagship centre, setting the standard for exceptional technical education. Excellence in teaching and learning is paramount to our success.

Our ambition is to produce a workforce of the future to benefit the leading employers in our industry. Our students will have advanced employability skills and demonstrate an outstanding work ethic, resilience, and a determination to learn and improve. All this will enable them to secure financially sustainable work in an industry dominated by freelance contracts.

We are looking for candidates who share our values on industry-led technical education, focused on outstanding outcomes for students in their achievements and their job opportunities. We need staff who are passionate about moving the creative industries workforce to a more ethnically and socio-economically diverse generation of employees.

If you share our vision and have the skills, knowledge and experience to help us to achieve our ambitions, we would be delighted to hear from you.

Jane Button

Principal and CEO National College Creative Industries